

St. Luke's PET Center Seminar

St Luke's PET Center sponsored a seminar entitled "Medical Indications of PET/CT Scanning" last May 15, 2008, 9:30 AM at Auditorium 1, 14/F, Cathedral Heights Building Complex, St. Luke's Medical Center, Q.C. This was in line with the launching of the newly acquired PET/CT Scanner of St. Luke's Medical Center. The Welcome Remarks was given by Mr. Rafael C. Solis, Vice President for Ancillary Services, St. Luke's Medical Center. This was followed by four lectures: Introduction to PET/CT scanning: Applications in Breast Cancer and Non-oncological cases

Dr. Jonas Santiago

Head St. Luke's PET Center Head and Neck Cancer Imaging

Dr. Raymond Conlu PET/CT for Lung Cancer

Dr. Roy Viscarra Utility in Colorectal Cancer

Dr. Henry Lazo St. Luke's Medical Center is one of a few in Asia, and the only hospital in the Philippines which has a PET/CT scanner that fuses the latest breakthrough PET technology with its 64-slice CT scanner, the most advanced kind of CT scanner in the country to date.